

Waunakee man to celebrate 65 years as friar

Capuchin friar Rupert Dorn of Waunakee is among four others marking 65 years in the Capuchin order Aug. 7 at St. Lawrence Seminary High School in Mount Calvary, Wis. Twenty-one Capuchins will mark their jubilee celebrations that day.

His ministries have included being a teacher, parish pastor and Provincial Minister. Friar Dorn served as the Provincial Minister, an elected position of the Capuchin Province of St. Joseph order for two terms. He now resides at San Damiano Friary in Madison.

The Capuchins are an international community of friars modeling themselves after St. Francis of Assisi. The brothers of the Capuchin Province of St. Joseph, headquartered in Detroit, serve a variety of ministries, including social service, schools, chaplaincy, retreat houses and parishes in Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Montana, Minnesota, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Nicaragua and Panama.
